CASTORIA. The Kid You Have Always Bought. Castoria. Deaths and Funerals.

Mrs. Sarah A. widow of the late Andrew Bryson, died last evening at her home, 81 White street, at the age of 71 years. Mrs. Bryson was well known in the East End where she had resided for a number of years. She is survived by two sons, Boyd, with whom she resided, and James, of Maine. Three daughters also survive, one residing in Pittsburg, Pa., one in Plymouth, Mass., and another in Long Island.

Thelma Potter died at the Bridgeport hospital, last evening, of chronic endocarditis, after having been an inmate of the institution since the beginning of the year. She was a resident of Brooklyn, N. Y., and at the time she was taken to the hospital she was visiting her brother, Charles Potter, in Howard avenue. The mother died on Feb. 27.

Y. W. C. A. NOTES.

Mrs. T. H. Robertson will be the leader at the twilight service on Sunday, which will be held at Central Association, 629 State street, as usual at 4:30, and Miss Ada Sterling will have charge of the music. All young men and girls are earnestly invited to attend these meetings and share in the privileges.

The educational classes are all busy with spring work and anyone who desires to make a dress, or trim hats, will be afforded an excellent opportunity at very moderate cost. The English classes are also doing excellent work.

WANT A WORD.

PERSONAL AND PERTINENT

"Aprons! I bought them by the dozen, and fine ones they are, too. Why wouldn't they be? They were made by the ladies of the People's Presbyterian church."—Thomas P. Taylor.

"I never saw such primroses as these are, even in merry old England. I'll take a hundred."—William Chew.

"I think this P. R. Village store is a modern miniature department store, and the way a man's money disappeared after the bargains was a caution."—Prof. Atlas.

"I do not advise my calling, though the bananas and peanuts did go, in lively fashion."—Alexander G. W. Hudson.

The ladies worked in such a diligent manner, it is gratifying to know their efforts were crowned with such signal success."—Rev. H. A. Davenport.

"If ever anything was a positive necessity it was the sprinkling carts during service, and it is good to see them."—John Brown, Jr.

Miss Mollie Daley of the South End, will succeed Elmer S. Joyce, as organist at Sacred Heart church. Miss Daley is well and favorably known in musical circles, and had long been an under-study for Prof. Joyce, taking his place on many occasions.

The many friends of Mrs. Georgianna Husted, of Norman street, will be pleased to learn that she is slowly convalescing after a very serious illness.

Miss Elizabeth McGuire, of Deacon street, who has been confined to her home with a severe attack of rheumatism, is slowly improving.

The Antlers club ladies auxiliary of the Elks, will hold an important meeting, next Tuesday afternoon, at 2 o'clock, in the rooms formerly used by the Elks.

Mr. Owen Toolan, of this city, who succeeded Mr. T. W. Grant, as foreman with the Sewing Machine Cabinet Company, and who retained his position when the Singer Mfg. company came into control, will sever his connection with the concern this week.

Mr. Toolan leaves with the best wishes of all connected with the plant, to enter into business for himself. Let us not miss seeing the art exhibit now on view at the library. It is truly a wonderful and beautiful display, and all the more creditable, since most of the pictures and paintings are by local artists. But it is not alone the pictures and paintings that are deserving of praise; the wood carving, and in fact every branch of the arts and crafts are well and finely represented. Two months' prizes cannot be given to those in charge, and to the exhibitors who have by their efforts, placed within reach of every one interested, a chance to inspect the beautiful art, and thereby profit by the lesson. The exhibit should be especially pleasing and instructive to the pupils in our public schools.

NO SETTLEMENT OF PLAINFIELD STRIKE

(Special from United Press.) Plainfield, April 2.—Very little progress has been made so far in effecting a settlement of the cotton workers' strike which began yesterday when three hundred employees of the Lawton Cotton Mills walked out in support of the complaint of nine girl employees that they were being treated as machines. Harold C. Lawton, superintendent of the factory returned from a delegation from the strikers, headed by H. W. Hibbard of Fall River, Mass., secretary of the Weavers' Union. The girls' grievance was presented to him, and he stated that no unjust demands had been made of the girls as they had been doing this work since the past year without complaint. The conference ended without any agreement being reached.

NEWTOWN.

At a meeting of the committee of the Grange for dramatics Tuesday evening, it was decided to present "The Private Secretary," as soon as it can be made ready, probably about June 1.

The next regular meeting of Pootatuck Grange will not be held until April 12.

A special town meeting has been warned for Saturday April 10 at 2 p. m. to consider a proposition from William N. Northrop in regard to a settlement with the town of the so-called "Houlihan dog tax checks." So far as can be learned it is a fair proposition to the town.

Norman E. Glover holds the reins over a new horse recently purchased from M. F. Crowe. It is surmised that Norman will do much fishing at the border of the Lake the coming summer.

The highway near the residence of Mrs. Walter Glover is dangerous for travel. There are several ditches nearly two feet deep within a few inches of the wheel track and anyone driving along in the night time would easily turn over should they happen to drive in one of them. There are also numberless rocks sticking out in the roadway caused by a sluice and ditch not being kept clear of the water of the recent heavy rain to run out. The town officials are open to severe criticisms for not attending to the repair of the washouts.

H. P. Boyson of Palestine is going over the Brushy Hill road with his milk wagon not daring to over the Etna bridge.

Miss Ada Marstolf of Beaver Falls who has been the guest of Rev. and Mrs. Alexander Steele for the past two months left for home today.

Borden's milk team in Bridgeport has been discontinued indefinitely.

Bliss is on duty again at the store of R. H. Beers & Co. after an absence of several weeks on account of illness.

Mrs. James W. Jordan and Mrs. Alexander Steele are enjoying a visit in New York city.

Mrs. George Stuart and Miss Alice Scudmore spent Friday in the Park City.

Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Greenman were guests Wednesday of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mallette Tashua.

Mrs. Herbert Wright left Friday for a few days visit at Bridgeport and Shelton.

Mrs. James Bedient of South Norwalk has been the guest of Mrs. Hattie Camp and Mrs. George Stuart.

METHODIST PARSONS CRY FOR BLUE WAY

REPORT READ AT SOUTHERN NEW ENGLAND CONFERENCE ROASTS PROF. BACON FOR FAVORING SUNDAY BASEBALL

Pawtucket, R. I., April 2.—The need of more rigid laws for Sunday observance in Connecticut was the feature of the report of the Sabbath Observance committee of the Southern New England Methodist conference, which was made yesterday.

Reports were made to the effect that stores were kept open on Sunday for the sale of tobacco, ice cream and general groceries, and a plea for Sunday baseball had been made. A professor of divinity at a Connecticut university, it was said, had been seen if the bill allowing Sunday baseball playing was not recommended, he would go out and play ball on Sunday, even if he had to go to prison for doing so.

This statement evoked calls of "let him go" from the convention. Prof. Bacon, an instructor in Bible Criticism in Yale University, is the man referred to.

POLI SEEKS THE WHITLA BOY FOR VAUDEVILLE ACT

A dispatch sent out from Wilkes-Barre, Pa., says that "Billy" Whitla, the kidnapped boy, is to be offered $1,000 a week for a vaudeville act on the vaudeville stage, by representatives of Sylvester Z. Poli, the vaudeville manager, who went to Sharon. The plan indicated, if the parents of the boy accept the offer, is to have him appear in a playlet illustrating how he was kidnapped, detained and recovered, after a very serious illness. Mr. Poli would certainly do his best to provide a tutor for him so that he will not be handicapped by missing school work.

Manager Stephen J. Breen of Poli's theatre in this city, said that he had not been informed in the matter contained in the dispatch from Wilkes-Barre, but he said that he would certainly do his best to cure anything that would be likely to please the public.

Woman Suicide of Windsor Locks Identified as Mrs. Mary Guild.

Windsor Locks, April 2.—The woman who committed suicide Tuesday night near the Yellow Tavern in this place by drinking carbolic acid was identified last night by a couple who live in Wethersfield, as Mrs. Mary F. Guild of Wethersfield.

Her name before she was married was Mary Clapp. She was 25 years old and was married several years ago to Mr. Guild. Three years ago he left her and joined Barnum & Bailey's circus. Since that time nothing has been heard from him.

Mrs. Guild has several children living in Wethersfield, besides many relatives.

SEASIDE CLUB TAKEN TO MEXICO

The members of Seaside Club were entertained by an interesting illustrated address, last night, by Attorney John C. Chamberlain.

Mr. Chamberlain talked of Mexico, which he has visited several times. Three years ago Attorney Chamberlain penetrated to the very heart of the country and acquired much interesting information. He obtained many photographic views of the country and its inhabitants, which he exhibited to illustrate his remarks. There were 150 of these views and they dealt with most interesting subjects, little known outside of the country. The attorney took his hearers with him from San Antonio, Texas, across the Rio Grande to the City of Mexico, passing Nuevo Laredo, San Luis Potosi and other interesting points by rail, and also on a horseback ride into Guatemala.

DICKINSON & SON FAILURE ANNOUNCED

(Special from United Press.) New York, April 2.—The first big failure resulting from Chicago's bull market was announced to-day in the suspension of the brokerage firm of John Dickinson & Co., of 42 Broadway and La Salle street, Chicago. The firm was members of the Consolidated Exchange and the Chicago Board of Trade. The liabilities are said to be $250,000. No statement has yet been made as to whether or not the creditors can be taken care of. Among the latter is Mr. Dinehardt, an Akron rubber merchant who is said to have a $70,000 account with the firm. A receiver will be asked for in Chicago.

BLUMER DISPLAYS SANITY AND SENSE

In His Worthy Book Entitled "The Revolution In Medical Practice"—No One Should Miss Reading It.

Health and its promotion by natural methods is the worthy, interesting and enlightening subject that Dr. Blumer of Hartford so intelligently handles in his contribution to literature. The book is entitled "The Revolution in Medical Practice" and it is one of the severest slaps in the face that medicine has ever received as well as being a thoroughly readable plan for humanity's betterment. The knowledge contained in this work is that with which every household should be conversant. There is hope for the sick who have been erroneously pronounced incurable and there is plenty of mind opening thoughts for the well that can result in a long and betterment. This altogether marvelous book is on sale at the book store of Hayes & Betts, 993 Main street, at 35 and 50 cents per copy.

An excellent supporting bill has been arranged for next week at Poli's. The added feature will be Europe's sensational Risley troupe. The Jossettis, one of the most remarkable products of the road. Diminutive Edwina Barry will appear in a domestic farce written by the inimitable Jimmy Barry, her brother. The clever comedienne will be supported by William Richards & Co. This is a great laugh act. The Long Ace Four, one of the best known singing quartets in vaudeville will be an immense feature. Pearson, Goldie & Lea, coking character singers and comedians who will sing and dance. A colored bunch of song and dance will be a popular riot before the week is over. Wood Bros., Irish double ring performers, and new motion pictures will complete a fine bill.

Last appearance to-night, of Emmet Devoy & Co., in the spectacular novelty "In Dreamland." Ward & Curran in "The Terrible Judge," and other pleasing acts this week.

Not Many Store-Sales Are Uninfluenced by Store-Advertising!

The store-sales to-day that are uninfluenced, directly or indirectly, by store-Advertising will not have amounted to ten per cent of the total business of the day. By the direct influence of advertising is meant the sales of articles specifically advertised. By the indirect influence of advertising is meant the articles sold that are not specifically advertised, but are displayed to the customers who are attracted to the store BY THE ADVERTISED ARTICLES. In the latter case, as surely as in the first, the advertising must be credited with the sale.

Observant merchants know that this is true. They should gain courage from the knowledge to strengthen their advertising campaigns to the point of matching their store-hopes and plans.
